

Allied Home Mortgage recognized by USDA Rural Development

Submitted Photo

Allied Home Mortgage Corp. was presented a Certificate of Appreciation by Les Denny, rural development specialist for the Maryville Rural Development office. The recognition was for the outstanding service that Allied Home Mortgage provides to their clients to find affordable homes and appropriate financing so that individuals and families can fulfill the American dream of homeownership. The presentation was in conjunction with the proclamation that June is Homeownership Month. Those attending the presentation were, from left to right: Les Denny, Dennis Lykins (branch manager), Amos Donaldson (senior residential lender).
